On 6 April 1951, 16 MiG-15s and four single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines were parked at Brandenburg-Briest (N 53/4 13) airfield. There was no flying. Trucks                      were seen. *

*            Comment. The airfield is occupied by one fighter regiment. The single-engine low-wing monoplanes are probably Yak-11s. The motor vehicle            confirm that the same unit is still stationed in Brandenburg-Briest.
